Enclosed is Tariff No.5 that you filed with this office on behalf Waco Livestock Auction, LLC d.b.a. Waco Stockyards. The effective date May 28, 2021 is shown on the authenticating stamp placed on your copy of the tariff.

Section 306(a) of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended and supplemented (7 U.S.C. § 207(a)) requires that schedules showing all rates and charges for stockyard services be kept open to public inspection at the stockyard.

Section 306(f) of the Act provides that after a schedule of charges has been filed, a stockyard owner or market agency may not charge, demand or collect a greater or less or different compensation for such services than the rates and charges specified in the schedule. Sections 306(g) and (h) of the Act specify severe penalties for failure to comply with these provisions. Section 306 is enclosed with this letter for your reference.

The Packers and Stockyards Act, as amended and supplemented (7 U.S.C. §§ 181-229) and regulations (9 C.F.R. §§ 201) enacted thereunder are available on the internet at <http://www.ams.usda.gov> or, at your request, we will provide you with copies.

If you have any questions about this letter or the sections of the Act or regulations concerning tariffs, please contact me at 303-375-4240.

Section 306...

(f) After the expiration of the sixty days referred to in subdivision (a) no person shall carry on the business of a stockyard owner or market agency unless the rates and charges for the stockyard services furnished at the stockyard have been filed and published in accordance with this section and the orders of the Secretary made thereunder; nor charge, demand, or collect a greater or less or different compensation for such services than the rates and charges specified in the schedules filed and in effect at the time; nor refund or remit in any manner any portion of the rates or charges so specified (but this shall not prohibit a cooperative association of producers from bona fide returning to its members, on a patronage basis, its excess earnings on their livestock, subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe); nor extend to any person at such stockyard any stockyard services except such as are specified in such schedules.

(g) Whoever fails to comply with the provisions of this section or of any regulation or order of the Secretary made thereunder shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $550 for each such offense, and not more than $27.50 for each day it continues, which shall accrue to the United States and may be recovered in a civil action brought by the United States.

(h) Whoever willfully fails to comply with the provisions of this section or of any regulation or order of the Secretary made thereunder shall on conviction be fined not more than $1,000, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both (7 U.S.C. 207).
